DEDICATION

"Dreams are messages which are sent to us from above. They can occur in all types of shapes and forms from beauty to bizarre. They bring omens and nonsense. The origin of their birth however, is enough to allow the light which they bring with them to penetrate into our souls. The Dream Of Mankind Is Peace On Earth And Good Will Toward Men." This yearbook is dedicated to that dream.

Activity is living. Activity is vigorous motion. Implanted in each Conaty girl is this liveliness and motion which showers forth when an activity becomes the big scene. Most students want involvement, to be someone. Conaty offers this spirit of involvement by supporting as many activities as may be beneficial for the full blossoming of the real person. Action makes the young Christian woman a part of her community — now.

involvement

I doubt if any of us will ever forget that terrifying experience we all faced on September 16, 1968. It was our first day of high school! All of a sudden there were innumerable faces, endless rules, a jumble of classes, and worst of all the condescending tone of those constantly calling, "Hey, Freshmen." Then . . . it all clicked: more and more faces became distinguishable; lockers could be opened; a shower clocked up in six minutes; and even a complete lunch eaten before all those bells set out to segregate the afternoon classes. As time elapsed, you were able to take a little breather. But there were still clubs to join, dates to remember, and that one dreaded event — initiation — to face. Polishing shoes, hailing seniors, carrying books, and kissing rings made us wish there were no such things as initiation day. But before it was over we had seen that "outa-site" play given exclusively for us; and we were all laden with more loot and stuffed animals than we could carry. We had to stop and think, "Big sisters are wonderful, ans so is being a member of Conaty's Frosh."

CRYSTALS

The Crystals of '72 were very successful in their first year at Conaty. They grasped at the main quality which all classes aim to achieve — unity. Their success should be attributed to many causes, not the least among them, the enthusiasm of the girls and their willingness to cooperate in all their school and class projects. However, we cannot overlook the class officers and moderator. The President, Sharon Ivery; Vice President, Carolyn Jones; Secretary, Letty Chavoya; and Treasurer, Rosaria Jordan, have all played prominent roles in affecting the Freshman Class. Moderator, Sister Emilia, guided the class along the new roads of high school days. Working together, they made the Crystals of 1972 a class that everyone connected with Conaty will be proud of.

Frosh Reading Lab

FRESHMAN ACADEMICS

A freshman's scholastic life becomes a great challenge in a most interesting manner at Conaty. An enormous amount of ideas is constantly being tossed to and fro during various classes. Although several students may be already familiar with certain classes, a new form and life are given to these.

Classes in the language lab bear little resemblance to those of the elementary grades. Promoting good sportsmanship, sound bodies, and quick minds, P. E. makes a positive contribution to all freshmen lives. The reading lab enables students to achieve greater comprehensive ability in their studies.

After a year of life at Conaty, the Sophomore Class of 1971 is now ready to show forth the spirit instilled in them. This year the Starlets have a few privileges which they could not claim last year as Frosh. For instance, their lockers are conveniently located in the school halls instead of down in the cafeteria, and by now, we hope, they have learned to work their combinations.

They are now old enough to be drafted into the Service Board and are allowed to leave a few classes five minutes early — legally, and without that wooden figure eight. The gold colored blouses radiate the true Conaty spirit. The Starlets are sure to succeed in all of their future pursuits.

Experience! That was my key word in speaking to the Frosh. With one year of directions, advice and chaos behind me, it really felt great to be on the other side. Even though my sympathy went out to the freshmen, I could barely suppress a smile and a sigh of relief that I was one step ahead of them.

Out for victory, section officers Gloria Chow, secretary; Susan Picazzo, treasurer; and Yvonne DeCoud, vice-president, take giant steps to create an atmosphere of cooperative unity.

Nine months of comical blunders and helpful instructions from others have developed a most proficient president, Angela Gradney.

Magdalena De La Cruz, treasurer; Diane Metoyer, secretary, and Sophia Rojas, vice president, encourage their section to participate in the numerous extra curricular activities here at Conaty; their most effective weapon is the example they give.

Spirit and cooperation are most important for a top section. To develop these attributes each individual must give and take. There is no better way to share than to participate in Conaty's various clubs and organizations, and this is just what the Sophomores of 10s2 are trying to do.

Pamela Ruffin's warm-hearted smile and outgoing personality fashion a charming section president for 10s2.

STARLETS

Different from preceding years, the lower division classes now enjoy the privilege of having four elected officials instead of the usual two representatives. Serving the Sophomore Class for a second time, Eleanor Mendez strives hard to unite her class and to be an involved president. Assisting the president at any time of need is Linda Van Kuilenburg, who works effortlessly as vice president. Being secretary of her class, Senora Sam is always kept busy. Geraldine Wilson, a very trustworthy treasurer, knows her job and does it well. Managing an entire class isn't easy, but with these four fine leaders together with their hardworking moderator, Sister Marcella, the Starlet Class of 1971 is sure to transform future dreams of success into reality.

We're the Starlet
Class of '71, colors shining yellow and white.
We're the best that Conaty has ever seen and we'll fight with all our might.
Colors shining like the stars above, unity will show our Starlet love.

so they'll shine

SOPHOMORE ACADEMICS

Never in one's life has there existed a time when he has learned too much. One's craving for knowledge enjoys an infinite range in which to expand. Enabling the sophomores to grasp and understand new ideas and skills for today's world and the future is the purpose of the various academic classes. Some of these are interesting electives, such as Glee and clothing, and the fostering of a skill as universal as driving a car.

 by this, they set out to bloom and flourish into a most prosperous asset for the Starlets of '71.

Alexis Bailey, secretary; and Aleta Despues, treasurer, feel exhilarated by their section's outstanding efforts to excel in school and class projects.

10S8

The class of 1970 has established its worth in all that it has undertaken here at Conaty. The Highlanders are truly one of the most spirited classes in the school. As a member of the upper division, naturally the juniors had to undergo a few changes, like holding out five periods instead of four till lunch and then waiting another twenty-five minutes before they charged down the cafeteria steps — only to find a grand total of left-overs for lunch. There was also a new dean who may have seemed a little harder on them because they were juniors and hopefully more responsible. Yes, it took a bit of getting used to, though by now it's all routine. The Highlanders of 1970 look forward to their senior year, but for the present they are satisfied with being a very spirited Junior Class.

11s1

The first important duty to be carried out by each section is elections. Their choice determines the direction of the school year. 11s1's choice of Sharon Armalin as president demonstrates this responsibility.

Me, a junior? Wow, I can hardly believe it. After two years, 11s1 is finally written on my rolodex card. Walking into room 112 and being greeted by Sister M. Kevin's warm smile revealed much more than anticipated ... this is to be the year of the Highlander.

A great section is composed of spirited members and competent officers. Rebecca Rodriguez, secretary, and Yolanda Santos, treasurer, fill the order of this demanding '68-'69 school year.

Challenge is being the last class to eat in the cafeteria. My life as a junior has its ups and downs. School life is so affected by a new dean, study hall, and an extra period before lunch. But, our junior year also brings me no math, nor language to conquer.

What is challenge? It is involving your entire personage with your section. As section president, Deborah Butcher copes with this challenge.

HIGHLANDERS

This year the Junior Class flocked to the polls with one thought in mind; to elect the four most able-bodied Highlanders who would inspire their class. Well rewarded efforts brought forth a new team of leaders; Teresita Guiterrez, a very thrifty treasurer; Andre Joseph, a daring and bold vice president; Linda Broussard, a most efficient secretary; and Martha Martinez, an inexhaustible president. Sister Jeanmarie, moderator, enjoys working with these fine officers as they endeavor to unite the Class of 1970.

Highlanders let's raise Junior voices in praise.
We're a bonny good class and we know
it.
For Conaty's spirit shines brightly through each lass.
Waving banners
green and white
we will show it.
We're ready to face any challenge that's made for our school, our class,
and their honor.
In unity we'll find the strength to top the rest.
One and all,
we'll know that Highlanders
are best.

The World's Finest is the first and most important drive of the entire year. It is also the most trying challenge for each section to pass its 100% goal. 11s3 does not fear. For section president Katrina Reaves leads the way during chocolate season.

Hitting hard this year are the school-day doldrums. When is another holiday coming up? Hard is the only word which can describe my academic year. An extra study hall really does not help. Term papers, book reports, and essays all pile up. My only solution — count the school days left.

Class rings are a focus point of the junior year. Participating in the ring ceremony is a joyful duty of section president, Pat Porchas.

The most wonderful day of my Conaty life happens in our junior year. Our rings — the symbol of the power and strength of the class of '70 — finally become a reality. On a nervous, rumor-filled day, during the carnation-scented ceremony, I squirm and can not concentrate. My ring, what will it feel like? Did I order the right size? Which hand do I wear it on? Then the rings are truly ours!

Participation is the key word of 11s6. This also applies to officers Susan Villar, vice president; Mary Rivera, treasurer; and Carmen Navarro, secretary.

Knowledge enters new dimensions as one treads upon new ground. The world of the new is vast and barely has marks of discovery. Although some believe that the body of knowledgeable things is exhausted, more and more ideas seem to evolve. Science, art, and secretarial skills are among those filled with creation, experimentation, and information.

Section officers Charlotte Stanley, vice president; Letty Aldaz, secretary; and Delia Stassis, treasurer, share Frances' enthusiasm for working to make 11s9 a vital part of the Junior Class.

As much as we complain, our junior year is fast slipping by. Look around, Highlanders will be everywhere — filling the posts and senior and student body offices. These thoughts thrill me because the most exciting year at Conaty is almost here.

Beaver Country is filled with spirited Highlanders. One of these is section president Frances Hodge who can be counted on at all times to put in extra time on class and school projects.

SERVICE

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

In the spring of '68 a strenuous campaign was launched by the candidates competing for the coveted Student Body Offices of Bishop Conaty. Though only four candidates were victorious, the entire Student Body won a great team of leaders. The spectacular spirit and vitality of these officers have made the unity of Conaty "happen" in '69 like never before. Wise and thrifty Paulette DeCoud maintains control of our school treasury. A conscientious Secretary, Sharon Waters, keeps the records as exacting as possible. As Vice President, Mercy Nunez inspects, informs, and regulates the Senior Control most efficiently. Carletta McDaniels, a more than soulful president, heads the Student Council and the entire school. Each performing her individual duties with special devotion join hands together, determined to unite the Student Body of Bishop Conaty in a dream come true, a dream of peace and love.

STUDENT COUNCIL

As the sun is the center of our universe and controls planet life so it can be said that the Student Council is the center of student life here at Conaty. Moderated by the Upper Dean, Sister LaLande, the Student Council is composed of the presidents from practically all the clubs and organizations of the school. The chairman is the Student Body President, Carletta McDaniel. The Student Council is our form of student government, and through it we gain a say-so in school activities, and receive an understanding of school policies.

The House of Representatives is a branch of the Student Council and was organized in an attempt to get the opinions and viewpoints of the individual student. It functions somewhat like the House of the United States Government. Each class sends two girls to the House and these two discuss and sometimes debate with representatives from the other classes on issues relevant to the interests of the school. Meetings are sometimes open and any interested student can sit in and listen to the opinions of those debating.

The Student Council is what brings all classes together and keeps the school united. For, and the saying goes, united we stand, divided we fall.

Freshman fear is only natural, you're just something to get used to. "Hey! Put your blouse in. Please, next time walk around the post and not into me! Girls, hurry or you'll be late for class! "Oh, but Senior Control — you aren't that bad. Without you the smooth running class changes would only become mass traffic snarls.

SENIOR CONTROL AND SERVICE BOARD—

The white and purple service pin is worn on yellow this year. Sophomores all lined up in a row, down the cafeteria steps and on through the hash line. When the Senior Control is away, the Service Board comes on strong! They watch over the Frosh during the first lunch period and also supervise their locker area after school.

Dedicated to the smooth operation of Conaty's library are Sister Gabriel Marie, moderator; Alma Velasquez, president; Denise Counts, vice president; Connie Jimenez, secretary; and Janice Ho, treasurer.

LIBRARY CLUB

During their free period, the librarian's assistants, the Cassiodorans, are taught the skills which will enable them to manage and operate efficiently Bishop Conaty's library. Members familiarize themselves with the daily routines of filing cards, assessing, shelving and/or binding books. Of course, a Cassiodoran's first duty is to assist anyone by satisfying her needs.

RED CROSS

A swinging little candystriper you may be, but in your future I see a medical career. Volunteer hospital work is only one activity encouraged by the Red Cross. There are holiday tray favors, yarn octupi, and flowers to make in an effort to cheer the sick and elderly. The only requirement: Be People-minded.

Serving our school and community are the officers of the Red Cross. Begonia Garcia, vice president; Janet Gonzalez, treasurer; Jennie Palacios, president; and Janice Eastham, secretary.

CAMPUS RUMORS

To be well informed one must keep up with what's happening in the news. Conaty's Campus Rumors supplies students with information on points of interest throughout the school. Six times yearly, the staff works to transform headlines, articles, interviews, and gossip into a captivating and organized summary of general events.

Most of the students are unaware of the tremendous effort that goes into the making of a newspaper . . . last minute touch-ups on an over-due article, the rush to meet a deadline, the frenzy involved in counting and folding every issue. But the staff always comes through with a newspaper that testifies to their ingenuity in producing a now-production.

PALLIUM

At the close of each school year, the Pallium Moderator finds it necessary to initiate and train a brand new staff in the basic methods of developing and producing a topnotch yearbook. The close of 1968 witnessed the formation of a staff that was greener than grass, but more than eager to grow in the knowledge of creating a spectacular annual.

Undertaking such a task demanded a maximum of generosity on the staff's part. They willingly accepted the problems and disappointments inherent in their great adventure — the presentation of the 1969 Pallium. Now that the struggles of the Pallium Staff are over, they wish to say one last thing. "We tried to make a dream come true, from all of us to all of you."

Striving toward a form of artistic perfection, Sister Theresa, art-photography advisor; Anne Lanoix, assistant photographer; Frances Weber, photographer; Margie Cortez, art editor; and Alma Velasquez, assistant art editor, plan during exciting photo sessions original ways of presenting Pallium, 1969.

Mary Ann Braithwaite, Gwen Dobine, Pam Knight and Alice Goff, business manager, conduct all Pallium business matters including the Patron and Subscription Drives.

Pallium Moderator, Sister Dolores; Connie Jimenez, assistant editor; and Wanda Bell, editor, agree on presenting the 1969 Yearbook in an unusual fashion.

Plotting and planning pictures and copy are jobs which Marie Estrada, copy editor; Mary Wills, assistant copy editor; and Begonia Garcia, layout editor, tackle with the ease that comes from experience.

CCD

The main work of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine is the imparting of the Christian message particularly by teaching children. CCD members study tutoring methods; the use of audio-visual aids; and the psychology of teaching children. This knowledge enables them to become certified CCD teachers. They willingly give their time and energy to this worthwhile project. The CCD, in its own way, works to promote the Catholic faith by making it known to countless numbers of children.

SACRISTANS

Although it is not always apparent, an abundance of effort goes into our weekly Mass. Changing and pressing the altar linens, making sure that the sacred vestments are laid out, and setting up the altar are some of the responsibilities of the Sacristans. Every Friday they lead the student body in prayer during the Sacrifice of the Mass. Even though it is not shown directly, the works of the Sacristans are appreciated by all who attend weekly Mass on campus.

Preparing Conaty's chapel for Friday Mass is one of the duties of sacristans, Irene Martinez, Stella Magallanes, head sacristan.

BGA

Officers: President, Peggy Toy; Vice President, Denise Davis; Secretary, Margie Cortez (Not Shown); and Treasurer, Chris Nagafuchi.

Every school has its special thing — Conaty has its Business Wing. The Business Girls Association is an extension of the learnings of the business department for those students who wish to give service to their school by putting their secretarial skills at the disposal of the faculty. Together with this service is a desire to culminate these two years of business training by rounding out their book knowledge by participating in field trips to business firms in the area; in seeing demonstrations of the most modern business equipment in action; and by inviting speakers to the BGA meetings.

CHRISTIAN ACTION GROUP

In every heart of each member of the Christian Action Group there reigns a love for their fellow man. The giving of themselves to help other people — and the receiving of a kind smile or thank you shows the Christian love between the Conaty student and people today. This union enables all members of the Christian Action Group — the People Club — to spread the good news and say, "People who need people are the luckiest people around . . ."

FINE ARTS

ART GUILD

Creativity is spurred by imagination. The members of the Art Guild strive to master this creativity. Throughout the year the girls work on various art projects such as paintings, sketches, and clay sculptures. In the spring, the student body has a chance to purchase these art objects at the Guild's Annual Art Festival. Art Guild members enjoy field trips to art museums where they can study the style of all the great artists of past and present. Through the Art Guild, participants are given the opportunity to employ their creativity as an expression of self.

Creativity, the keyword in the field of art, is explored by Art Guild Moderator, Sister Theresa; Rebecca Baeza, secretary; Adrienne Carter, vice president; Pat Lemons, treasurer; and Chris Takai, president.

GUITAR CLUB

One of Conaty's newest associations is the Guitar Club. Originated due to a general interest in music, especially in the six-stringed, slender-necked instrument handled by so many rock, folk, and soul groups, this club is assured ample membership. At this time, not every member can play the guitar, but those who do sponsor periodic "sing-a-longs" on the green. Who knows, perhaps some day Conaty will feature her own group.

Mr. William Jefferies and Conception Duran (kneeling), Irene Aguilar, Margaret Chow and Linda Broussard form a mutual admiration society of the things of the guitar.

GLEE

Conaty's Glee Club is composed of two groups — the Cecilians, made up of juniors and seniors, and the Choralettes, made up of sophomores and freshmen. Under the direction of Sister Mary Catherine, the Glee Club performs for the student body on St. Cecilia's Day, as she is the patroness of the club; at Christmas; and at one or two other times throughout the year. Through the Glee Club's "sound of music", the student body participates in one of its favorite audience experiences.

Vocally gifted freshmen and sophomores are known on campus as the Choralettes.

A shimmer of nervousness runs through last-minute preparations as Isabel Gonzales gives Myrna Teruya a helping hand as they ready themselves for the cue.

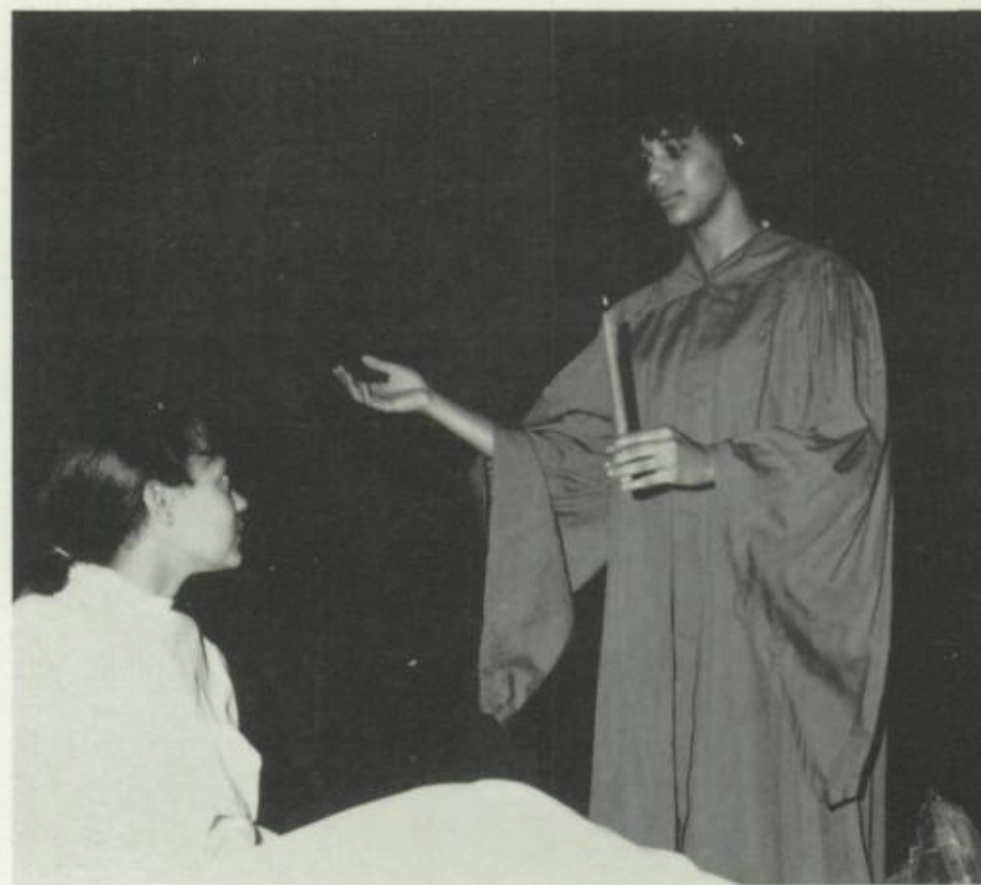

Music is everywhere, especially in the hearts of the Glee Club officers, Katrina Reaves, secretary; George Wheeler, wardrobe mistress; Madeline Gourrier, president; Frances Hodge, treasurer; and Lupe Garcia, vice president.

Conaty's senior glee, the Cecilians, perform with ease of professionals.

DRAMA

Plays and public speaking are your things, so you join this fantastic club and find yourself backstage on opening night. Thoughts fly around in your mind; is your make-up all right; hair; costume? But the most important of all — your lines. Yours may be the largest or most minute role in the play, but either way — it counts tremendously. Suddenly, you hear an automatic alarm sound off from within — curtain!

Drama Club officers appearing with their Moderator, Mrs. Kathleen Nelson, are Peggy Toy, vice president; Denise Davis, president; and Beatrice Garbutt, secretary-treasurer.

ACADEMICS

BIO-CHEMICS

Each club possesses a personality of its own — one which evolves during each school year. This is what makes Conaty's campus a field of involvement. Among these organizations is the Bio-chemics Club, whose membership consists of science-minded juniors and seniors. Under the guidance of its moderator, Miss Melissa Menke, Biochemics has become thoroughly modern. Would you believe an excursion to the Busch Gardens was included on this year's agenda? Signs of the times are clearly evident as this club treads upon new and adventuresome ground.

Officers: Lynette Castille, secretary; Adrienne Carter, treasurer; Rosalind James, president; and Sandra Estrada, vice president, concoct an experiment for their next meeting.

SPANISH CLUB

Las Espanolitas contributes towards the expansion of its members' knowledge of Spanish and Mexican cultures. Through a variety of activities — films, speakers, field trips to the California Missions — the Spanish Club fosters an understanding of others for many Conaty girls. 1969 is no exception, as some travel-minded Conaty Beavers hope to spend a summer at the University of Salamanca as participants in a European study-program.

Squeezing in a planning session at lunch period are Margaret Davila, secretary; Beatrice Garbutt, president; Elva Mendez, vice president; and Isabel Gonzalez, treasurer.

FRENCH CLUB

An intoxicating dream of an evening in Paris could easily tempt anyone to seek and discover the hidden beauty of far-away France. Sprinkling these dreams with reality, Le Cercle Jeanne D'Arc explores the French culture, language, art, and the people. Enriched by this knowledge, French Club members can bring France to America and maybe one day ... America to France.

Lorna Phillips, president; Sylvia Marchand, secretary; listen to records to improve their diction. (Not shown, Ellen Kimoto, vice president.)

NHS

Every school has its special honor societies for which only a few possess all the needed requirements. The National Honor Society is such an organization. Those who wish to join must meet the strict 3.0 grade point average. Members share an enthusiasm for scholarship, a desire to give service, and a willingness to promote good character and fine leadership among their fellow students. OFFICERS: Judy Ashimoto, president; Anne Lanoix, vice president; Teresa Hokson, secretary; Conception Duran, treasurer.

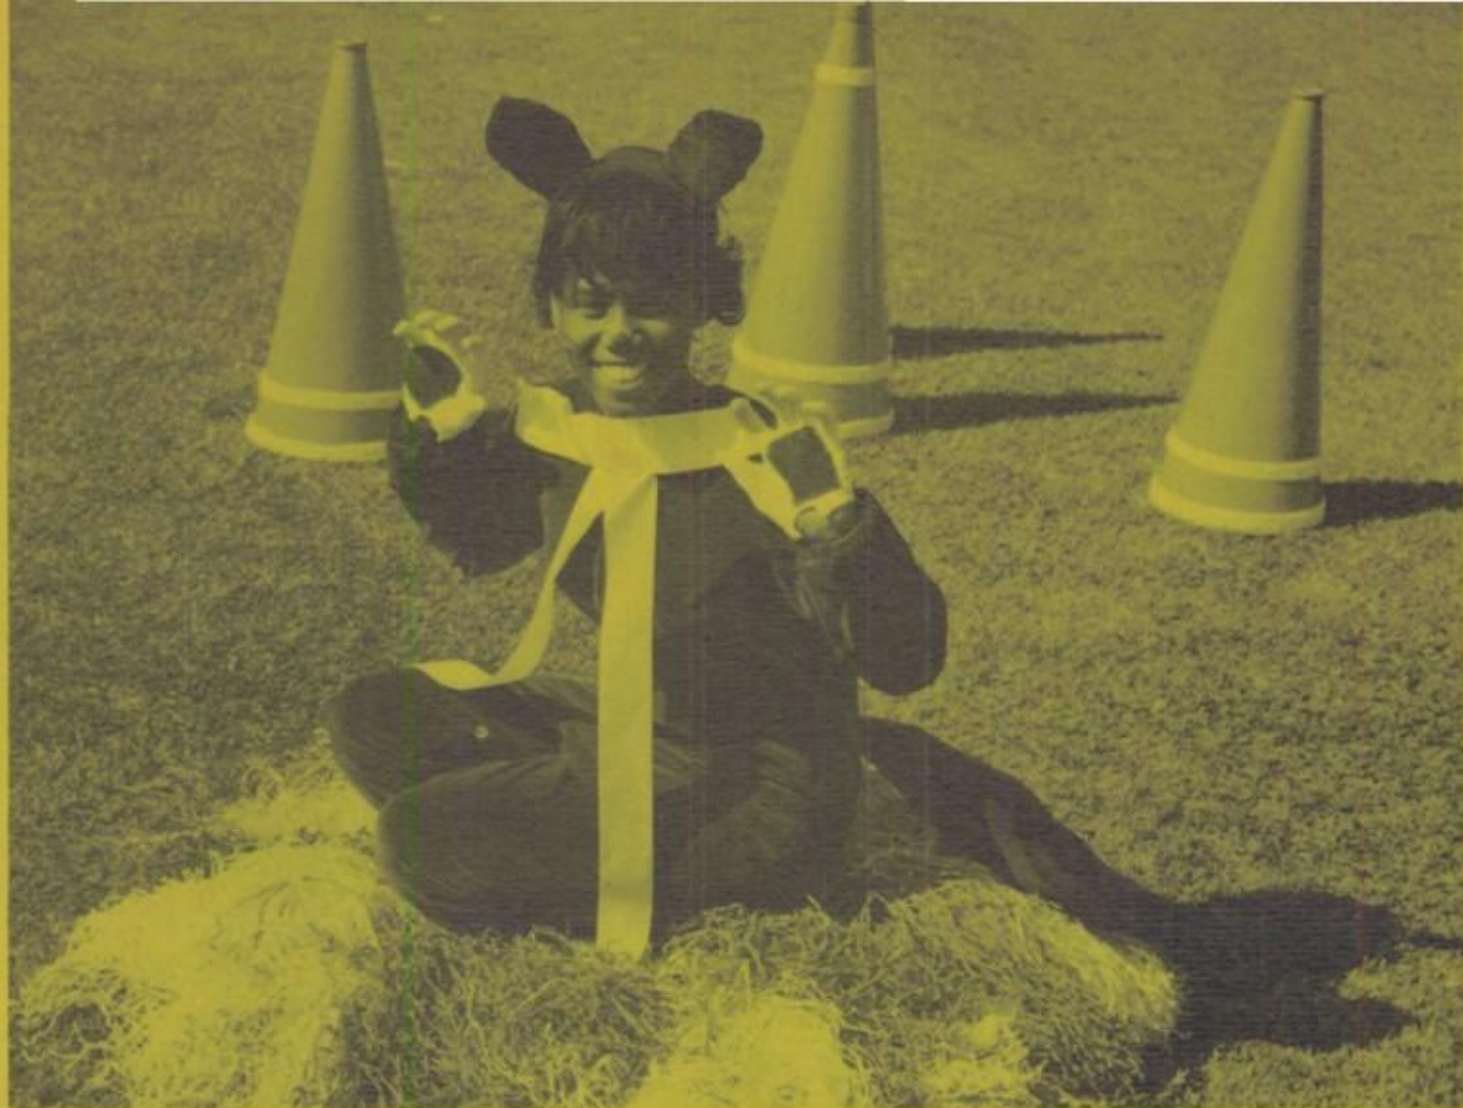

CSF

The elite of scholarship societies on California high school campuses is the California Scholarship Federation. This organization fosters high standards of scholarship, service and citizenship. Membership is not easily acquired for one must meet the academic requirement of 3.3 grade-point average per semester. OFFICERS: Denise Counts, president; Wanda Bell, vice president; Margaret Chow, secretary.

SPORTS

BEAVER MASCOT

Symbolizing Conaty's fantastic spirit, the Beaver has captured the hearts, screams, and cheers of everyone. No one exactly knows our mascot's origin, yet she first appeared in the '59 Pallium as a costumed child. As time passed, Conaty's mascot evolved into one of the most coveted of G.A.A. honors. Spirit, vitality, and enthusiasm are but a few words which can describe our '68-'69 mascot, Debbie Smith. Garbed in the traditional Beaver costume, she "revved up" an enormous amount of spirit at the annual St. Mary's Tournament. This enabled Conaty to proudly walk away in possession of prized Spirit Trophy. Stirring up enthusiasm with her spirit stick, Debbie leads the crowd into the famous "Beaver Call". "BEAVER ONE . . . BEAVER ALL . . . LET'S ALL DO THE BEAVER CALL . . . WOO, WOO, WOO!"

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club, organized by its current president, Margie Shields of 12s2, is a brand new club. Its membership is composed of students of all four classes who have some knowledge of the game. At meetings, the girls can be found going over basic rules, planning strategic moves, and challenging one another to thought-provoking skirmishes on the chessboard. To play the game of chess, one must possess a great amount of concentration and skill. It is hoped that this competition will eventually lead outside the boundaries of Conaty.

Planning new moves are Margie Shields, president; Anita Green; Joan Moreno, treasurer; and Susan Hernandez. (Not shown, Ellen Kimoto, secretary.)

Sports is what the GAA is all about. Spectators of Moderator Sister Mary Jean's free throw are officers Anita Green, vice president; Crystal Alexander, treasurer; Brenda La Cour, recording secretary; Blanca Alvarez, corresponding secretary; Verdel La Cour, president; Kathy Huck, sports manager; and Edna Hollins, historian.

GAA OFFICERS

Bishop Conaty's Girls' Athletic Association holds the largest membership of all the clubs. The reason: spirit. Each season is filled with excitement-packed games including school, class and faculty competition. As sponsor of our yearly carnival, Field Day, the GAA rates high on the popularity poll. This club promotes the essential quality of healthy competition in sports and additional endeavors.

The largest club in the entire school requires qualified, capable leaders. The officers of the GAA fulfill the responsibilities of their positions with the know-how and confidence that members respect and are sure to follow. The GAA represents spirit and the GAA Officers are the essence of that spirit.

Verdel La Cour, GAA president, fulfills a minor duty of her office by regularly addressing a sea of enthusiastic Beavers.

Members of the JV's for the 1968 fall season are Sarah Reyes; Carmen Anaya; Ilona Sziklay; Cynthia Touchard; Madeline Gourrier; Louise Phillips; Helene Suber; and Betty Dutton, captain (kneeling).

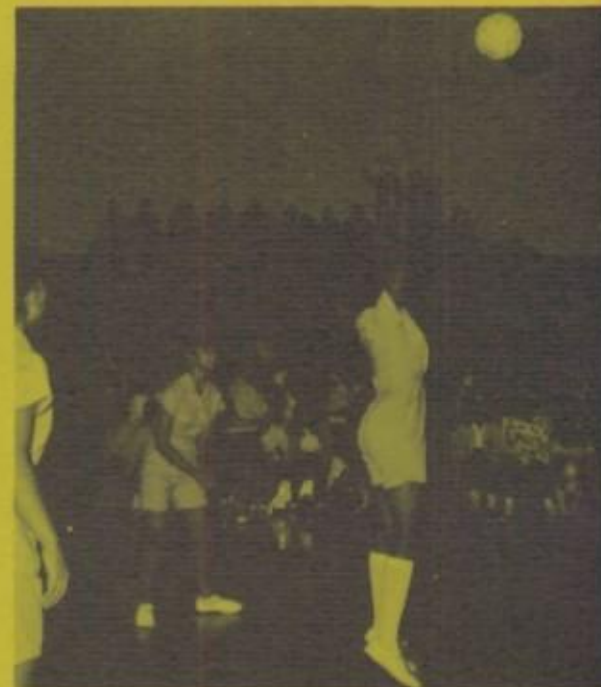

VOLLEYBALL VARSITY

A varsity is composed of the best players in a particular sport. Our Volleyball Varsity possesses skillful players — ones who know how to show spectators an exciting game. Coached by Mrs. Linda Smith, the girls unite in teamwork to compete against the best in other schools.

Experiencing the numb excitement which precedes the action of each and every game are Conaty defenders Debbie La Croix (foreground); Margie Shields; Madeline Gourrier; and Dana Snipe. Score: St. Anthony's — Conaty, 15-4; 15-7.

Melanie Gradney stands ready to cover Dana Snipe's volley during a victorious game over Regina Coeli. Score: Conaty — Regina Coeli, 15-7; 15-11.

Battling every volleyball game with glowing spirit and teamwork is Conaty's varsity. Margie Shields, captain (standing); Martha Rodriguez; Carrie Cox; Dana Snipe; Debbie La Croix; Yvette Pen-ick; Melanie Gradney; Celina Perez; Dolores Cabrera; and Angie Terrell.

Basketball Varsity

BASKETBALL VARSITY

Teamwork and good sportsmanship are the main factors attributing to the success of our basketball varsity. Coached by Miss Barbara West and Mrs. Linda Smith, the varsity team members believe that practice makes perfect, and so can be seen running through drills and plays at after-school practice. Our team puts on an exciting display of skill for spectators at every game.

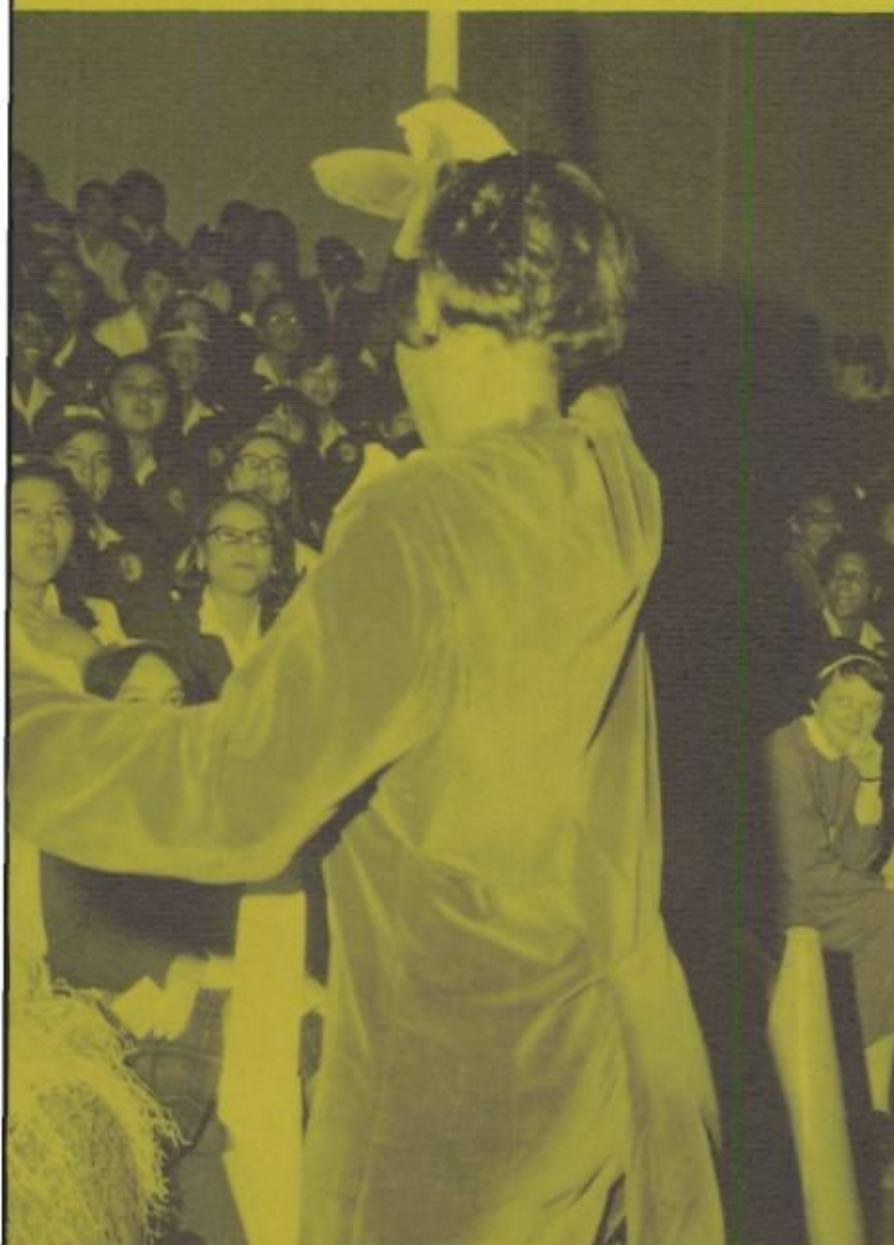

Purple and white banner, beanie and button with giant megaphone — all are signs of Beaver Country and spirit.

PEP CLUB

Spirit, good lungs, and a powerful set of vocal chords — these are the requirements of the Pep Club. Decked out in Beaver beanies and white gloves, the girls have the place of honor in the cheering section at every game. They master each cheer — words and rhythm — to urge on the team to victory. Led by the varsity cheerleaders, Conaty's Pep Club is outstanding when it comes to tournaments, the place to display spirit with enthusiasm and uniformity of movement. The Pep Club is one of the proudest assets of Beaver Country.

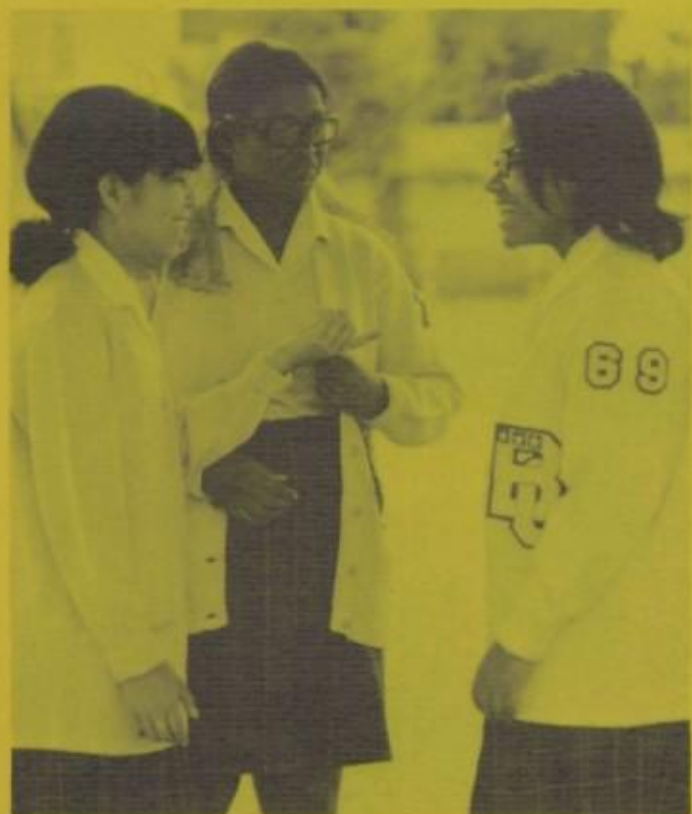

Present at every game is the sea of Beaver faces. Their undaunted spirit spurs on the team time after time.

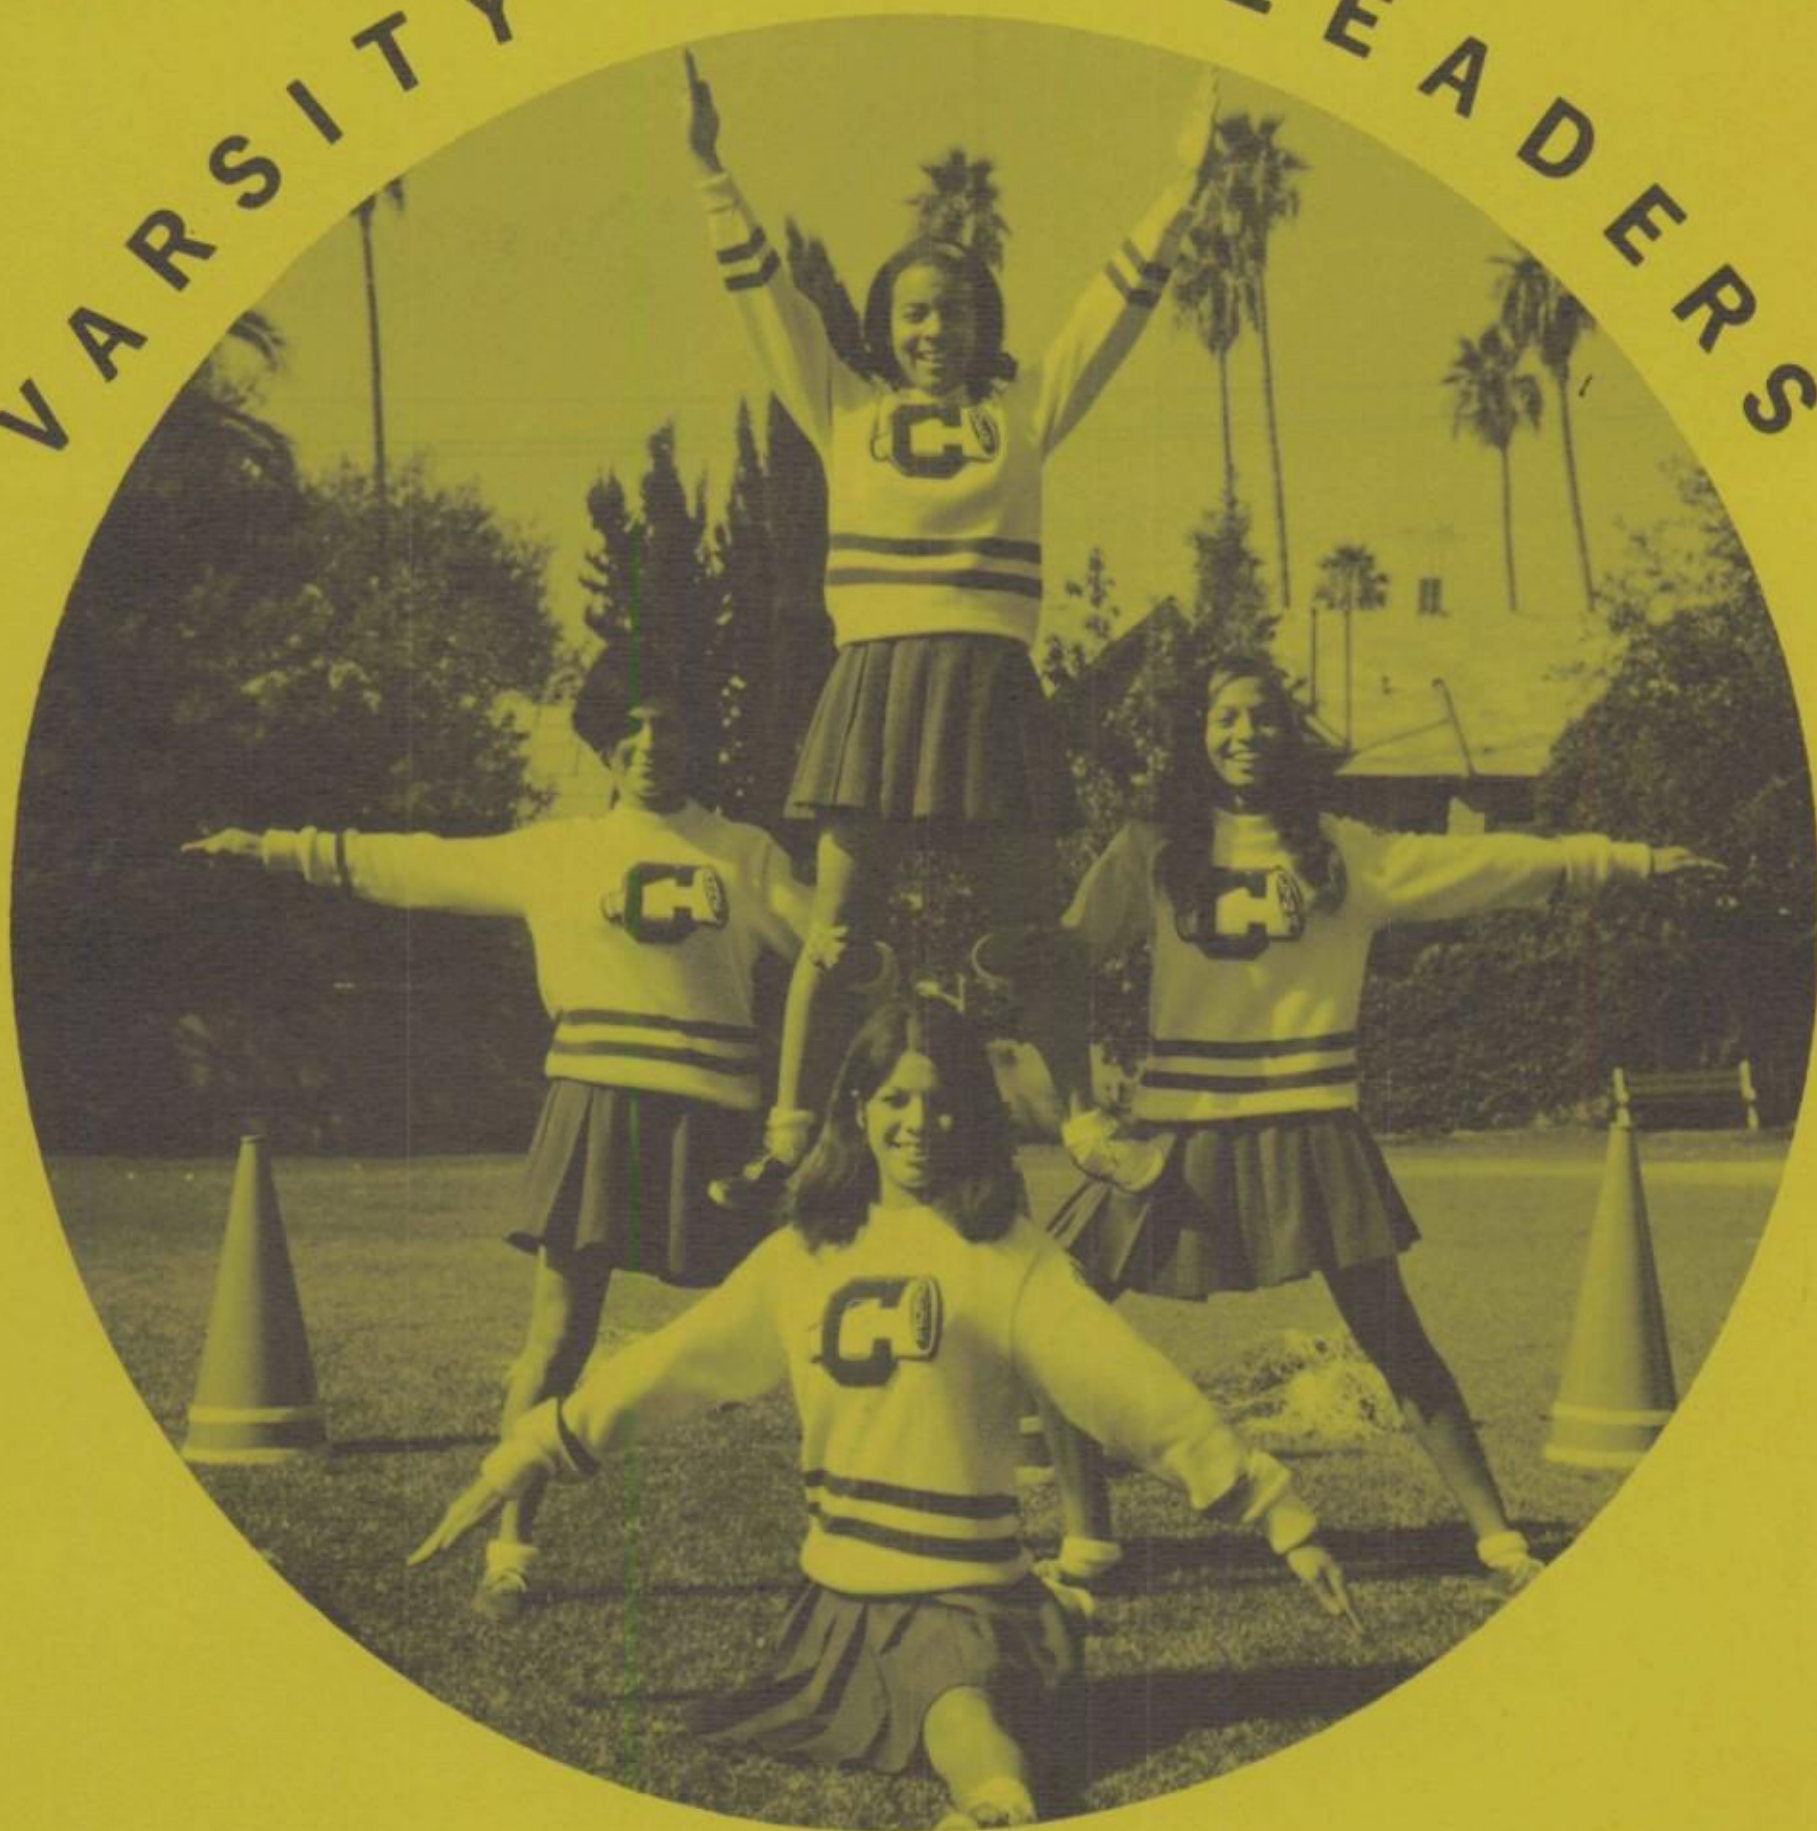

LETTERGIRLS

Being a lettergirl isn't always an easy job. For one thing, it consumes much time and effort. In general they aim to ignite social growth and responsibility among themselves. They must attend all sports events, activities, and tournaments sponsored by the G.A.A., and are responsible for the preparation and organization of the annual Field Day festivities. Active G.A.A. members are just as enthusiastic to accumulate enough total points required to earn their letter, regardless of the revisions made this year on the point system.

Officers: Vice-President, Lupe Garcia; Secretary, Katrina Reaves; and President, Anita Green.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

During the summer Conaty lost one of her varsity cheerleaders. This jolt failed to dampen the crisp, sparkling spirit of our four remaining cheerleaders. With Debbie Terrell at the helm, Anne Iskenderian, Lynette Castille, and Deidra Armour pushed forward steering their school to victory and the Spirit Trophy.

Class spirit reflects the personalities of its members. Conaty's Royalties are just a little more proud of their spirit of '69. The promise of graduation and the prom provoke the seniors to dazzle like they never have before. Even more inspiring is the reward of hard together-work, well done. You are finally satisfied to know you have done your best and your best is tops. You have shared your spirit with your class as well as the others. You have arrived. Now you are ready to step gracefully into the world. It's your cue. "Rise and shine!"

ROYALETTES

Rise and shine and show that you're royal, royal.

Rise and shine and show that you're Royalettes of Conaty.

Dreams do come true! The Class of 1969 was at long last facing reality. For three years, the Royalettes endured the growing pains that accompany any maturing process. Now, harvesting their reward, the Seniors of Bishop Conaty achieved a unity and outstanding class spirit. Under the leadership of their officers, the Senior Class came out on top in every major school endeavor. Montreal Rodney worked diligently in serving her class as its president. With the fervor of a politician, Rene Baptiste filled the office of vice president, and Gwen Carter, secretary, executed her office with no less enthusiasm. Carmen Ramirez, treasurer, handled all money problems with the exactness of a veteran banker. Sister Theresa's, CSJ, generous and untiring guidance was a constant reminder to be "loyal Royalettes."

SENIOR SECTION PRESIDENTS

The spirit of the Royalties is due largely to the unity of purpose of the eight senior sections. Leading each section in this spirit of oneness are the section presidents. They are: Dolda Cooper of 12s1; Rosalind James, 12s3; Janise Bourgeois, 12s6; Debbie Terrell, 12s7; Judy Ashimoto, 12s4; Lupe Garcia, 12s2; Leslie Borden, 12s8; and Laurette Felton, 12s5. Section presidents are responsible for keeping their sections up to date, making weighty decisions, and attending numerous lunch-time and after-school meetings.

BLANCA LANDEROS
Aren't you ashamed?

JOYCE LINDA LAWRENCE
But my name isn't Linda it's Joyce!

GLENDA LANDRY
"Love makes the world go round."

ANNE ELIZABETH LANOIX
"Men are never so likely to settle a question rightly as when they discuss it freely."

PAMELA MYREE LEAR
"Love is our ultimate goal."

DEBORAH ANN LEBOEUF
"Your life is what your thoughts make it."

DIANA LEBOEUF
You're a friend to me always.

LUCRECIA S. LEZAMA
Is that right?

CATHERINE LOPEZ
I can't really say.

ESTELA LOPEZ
"Life is not a giving and a getting, but a being and a becoming."

ANTONIA LOZANO
"Love is hard to give, and hard to get."

RITA MACIAS
"Nothing makes sense until you love someone."

REBECCA MALDONADO
"Give love and thou shall receive love."

CAROL MARY MANCERA
Let's get down to the real nitty gritty!

SYLVIA ANN MARCHAND
Say it loud. We're tops and we're proud!

ELIZABETH MARTIN
Fighting peacefully against evil should be man's goal.

MARIA ELVIRA MARTIN
Oh, no!

IRENE CHRISTINE MARTINEZ
Oh!!

SARA MARTINEZ
You've gotta be kidding!

DONNA McCLESTER Groovy grits!

CARLETTA McDANIELS
Do your thing!

MONA McGEE
"Laugh while you can . . . everything has its time."

MARIA ELENA MELENDEZ
"The only way to have a friend, is to be one."

ELVA LUISA MENDEZ
"Precious things come in small packages."

SYLVIA D. MENDIVIL
"A person can be hurt according to how deeply they love."

JOELANDA H. MERCADO Bet you can't catch a leprechaun.

MARIA DOLORES MEZA
You can't be for real!

DONNA MILLS
"It's what you have . . . that serves to make you rate."

KATHERINE C. MONTEZ
"You who walk by with downcast eyes will never know the smile I had to offer. Pity. We could have had so much."

DIANE MORA
"Advice is like castor-oil, easy to give but hard to take."

YOLANDA MORA
So, as you were saying . . .

MONICA ANN MORAN
"This is dedicated to the one I love."

JOAN MORENO
"When there is love, then distance doesn't matter — distance or silence or years."

SANDRA MOSES
"Although it's wonderful professed, it's much more comforting possessed."

AMELIA MULLINS
My mind is already made up.
Don't add to the confusion!

ROSEMARY MUNOZ
"Together we stand, divided we fall."

YOLANDA MURO
I only hope that I have made my parents proud of me.

CHRISTINE LYNN NAGAFUCHI
Don't worry about it — just take it as it comes.

JACKIE NEELY
For real!

RITANNE NEWMAN
What a way to go!

SHERRY NEWSOME
"All that glitters is not gold."

MERCY NUNEZ
"He who has a why to live can bear with any how."

CONNIE OLMEDO
"Be not anxious about what you have, but about what you are."

ROSE CHRISTINA OCHOA
"When love comes strong ...
Just love."

MARGIE ONTIVEROS
Knock yourself out.

MARIA ORTIZ
Would you believe it's me!

DOROTHY PALOIAN
The world goes by so fast, why don't you stop for a while and look at it?

JENNIE PALACIOS
"Oversleeping will never make your dreams come true."

LINDA PARKER
"Just be true to you."

OFELIA PEDROZA
You know what I mean!

ANN MARIE PEREZ
"Better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all."

MARITZA AUXILIADORA PEREZ
The greatest thing in this world is not what we are, but what we are to be.

LETICIA CARMEN PEREZ
"What sunshine is to flowers, smiles are to humanity."

NATALIE PEREZ
For reals!

ESTHER PRECIADO
The limits of my language are the limits of my world.

LORNA TAANA PHILLIPS
The beauty of each man speaks for itself.

DEBORAH PERRY
To succeed is to fall and to fall is to live.

MARGARET MARIE QUINTANA
 "Not miles, nor walls or lengths of days, not the cold doubt of midnight can hold us apart."

CARMEN RAMIREZ
 Some people give and forget;
 others get and forget."

CHRISTINA RAMIREZ
 "The world is never really empty, but with someone near it's always full."

SUSAN KRISTINE RAUGI
 My time has come.

MARIA ELENA REZENDEZ
 How would you like it if they did that to you?

TONDA LOUISE REED
 "To be a woman is a great adventure;
 you will forget the hardships that you endure."

SARAH REYES
 All right ... group!! Sock-empow!

ROSA MARIA RICARDEZ
 "Treasures are guarded by dragons; that is how you know they are valuable."

SOPHIA CHARLENE RICKS
If "ignorance is bliss," why aren't more people jumping up and down for joy?

ROSE MARIE RIOS
"Get serious!"

ANNA RIVAS
"You bet your sweet bippy!"

MARTHA ROBLES
"Live your own life and follow your own star."

VIVETTE ROBLETO
Oh! My goodness!

SUZETTE ROBOTTOM
"Life is not a having and a getting, but a being and becoming."

MARIA G. ROCHA
"Love is something still ... for which we bear to live or dare to die."

MONTREAL RODNEY
"A smile is a curve that can set a lot of things straight."

*“ . . . for yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision.
But today, well lived . . .*

makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.”

DEBRA PATRICIA RODRIGUEZ
Be like that!

DELIA RODRIGUEZ
Oh, well . . .

MARTHA RODRIGUEZ
We are artists in action forming the lump clay that was given to us by God.

YVONNE RODRIGUEZ
Sock-it-to-me!

PETRA ROJAS
Forget it!

YOLANDA ROMERO
Oh, wow!

MARTHA ELVA RUBALCABA
"If this world were mine . . ."

VIRGINIA S. RUEDA
"To thine own self be true."

LILLIAN M. SABORIO
Is that so?

MARY LYNDA SALDANA
"Fix your mind inwardly between the eyebrows on the shoreless lake of peace."

MYRNA KAYE SANDERS
Friendship is the only cement that will hold us together.

ELSIE SANTILLAN
Hey! Did you do your homework?

HILDE SCHEICH
"Be a lamp in a chamber, if you cannot be a star in the sky."

ADELHEID SEIFERT
Love is like a daisy in the spring.

ANGIE SERNEK

LUPE SEPULVEDA
"Love is a many splendored thing."

SYLVIA S. SERRANO
You must be kidding!

JoANNE SOLANO
That I can dig for days.

ANNE MARIE SORAPARU
"Love is a beautiful thing!"

MARGIE SHIELDS
In starting a new adventure ... I uncross my fingers and grit my teeth.

GLORIA SOTELO
"Fairy tales can come true.
They can happen to you."

MYRIAM SUESCUM
C'est la vie!

MARGARET L. MARIE TARVER
Now what have I done?

YOLANDA DEBRA SORIA
Love is what you make it, so while he's away I pray he'll return.

DEBORAH ANN TERRELL
 "There is no such thing as a stranger in this world, only friends who haven't met."

JUDY TATUM
 For really and for truly.

KATHLEEN TARY
 Well, that's life.

LAURA TEMBLADOR
 "The way to be happy is to make others happy."

VIRGINIA R. TINGZON
 "To err is human, to forgive, divine."

FRANCISCA TINOCO
 "The glory of life is to love, not to be loved; to give, not to get; to serve, not to be served."

ELAINE THOMAS
 "Love is the willingness to sacrifice one's self for the real good of another person."

SHARRON CANDY THORNHILL
 "For once in my life, I will go where life leads me. Somehow I know I'll be strong."

CYNTHIA ANN TOUCHARD
"Laughter is a smile that bursts."

YVONNE PEGGY TOY
"Love is the ultimate gift."

DIANE LOUISE URQUIZA
God is goin' to punish you.

MARIA VARGAS
"A smile is a curve that can set a lot of things straight."

MARY ANN VASQUEZ
"Hear the mellow wedding bells, golden bells! What a word of happiness their harmony foretells."

ALMA LORENA VELASQUEZ
Just forget about it!

EVELYN WALLACE
Where's what's her face?

SHARON CATHERINE WATERS
"I like you because ... but, I love you although ..."

FRANCES WEBER
 "Flowers ... all different shapes, sizes, colors ... yet they live together ... Why can't we?"

GEORGE MARIE WHEELER
 I know you can do it.

PAMELA WHITE
 "Our restlessness is largely due to the fact that we are yet wanderers between two worlds."

PATRICIA WILLIAMS Personality makes an individual.

MARY D. WILLS
 "The road to success is always under construction."

MARGARET ANN YANEZ
 "All my tomorrows depend on your love."

MOLLY HELEN ZAMORA
 What's it to you!

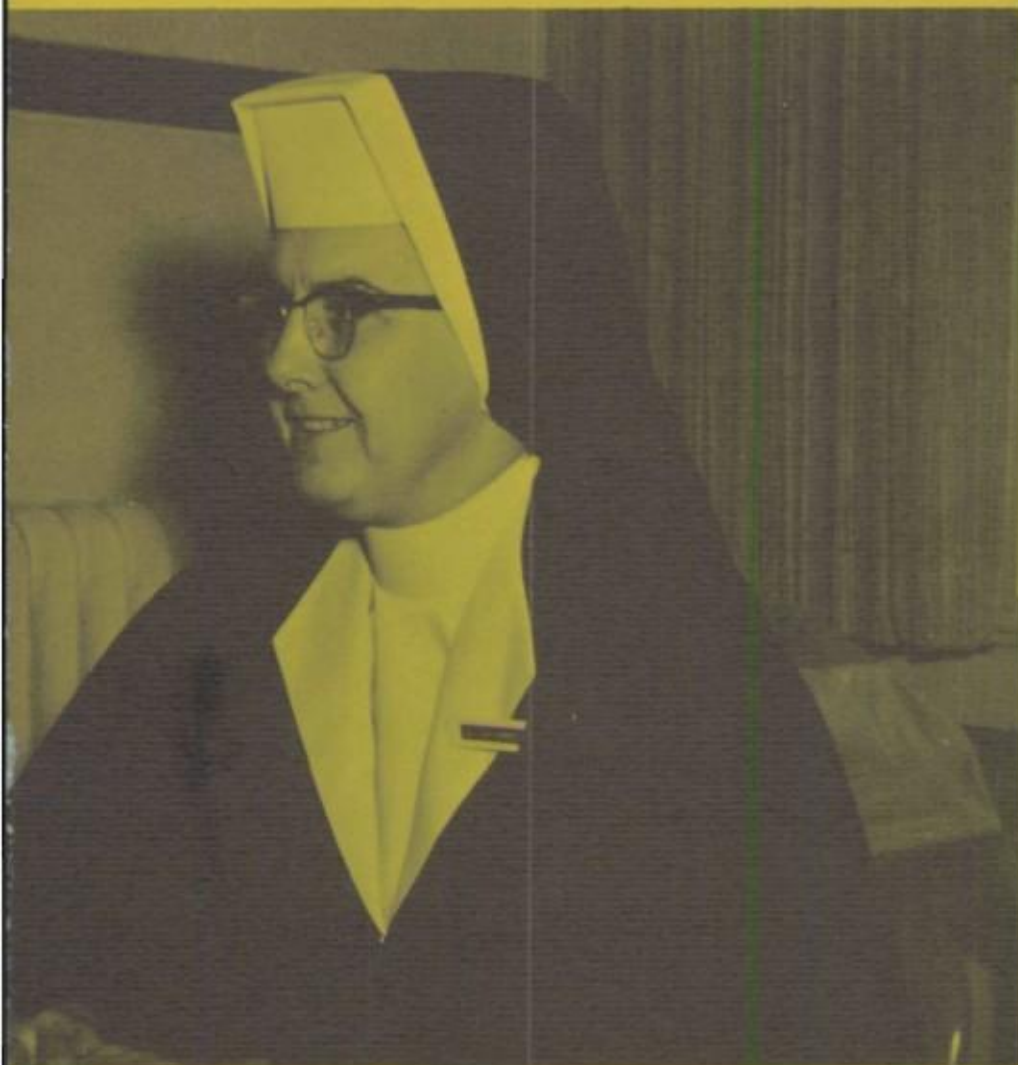

ADMINISTRATION

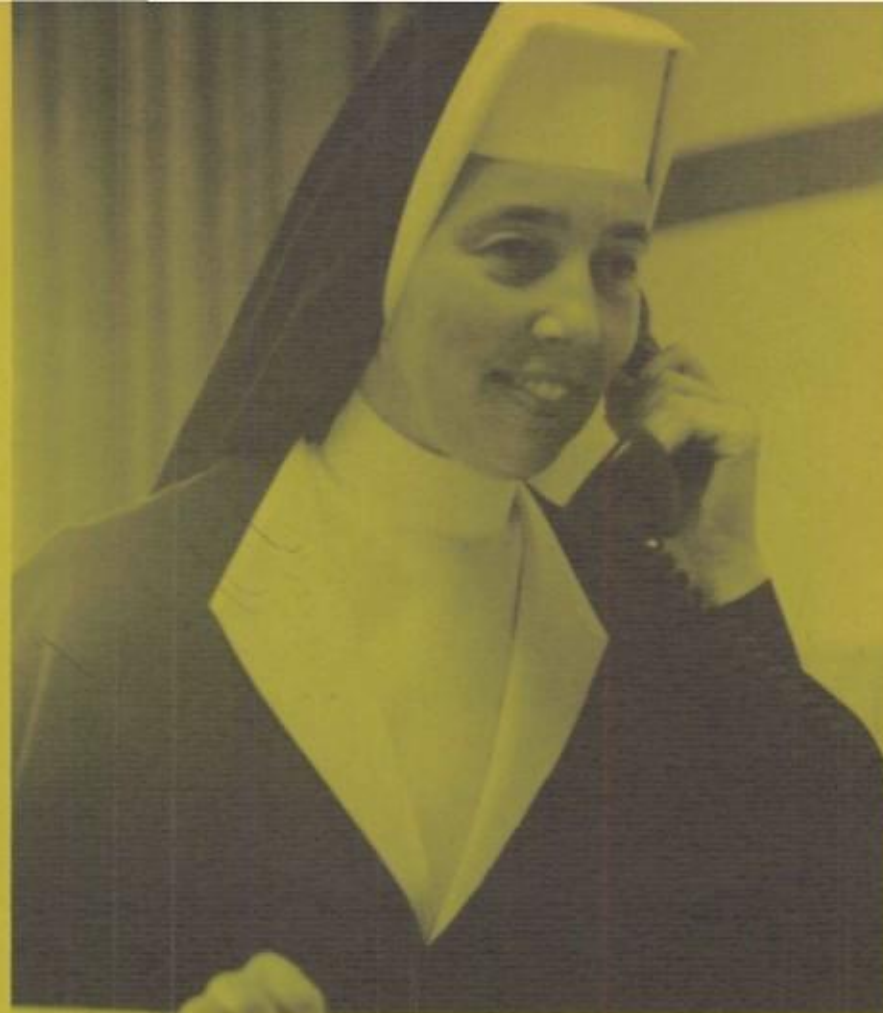

FATHER JOHN V. COSGROVE, PRINCIPAL

Administration is a big word and it demands big people. They have an obligation to do what is best for the whole. And once the decisions have finally been reached, they must be prepared to accept any static which may spring from a defeated cause. Their job is never easy and their work is never done. They began early in the summer of '68 working well into the events of the coming school year. Father Cosgrove and Father Tellers did their utmost to inform the flood of new teachers of the do's and don'ts at Conaty. While Sister La Lande was recruiting the new Student Council, Sister Marie Elaine made allowances for her anticipation of the chaos a new Freshman Class would undoubtedly produce.

SISTER M. LA LANDE, S.S.N.D.
Dean of the Upper Division.

SISTER MARIE ELAINE, S.S.N.D.
Dean of the Lower Division.

REVEREND GERALD TELLERS, Vice-Principal.

FACULTY

SISTER THERESA, C.S.J. strives to convey her creativity to the students in her art classes. While presiding as Chairman of the Art Department, Sister still finds time to moderate the Senior Class.

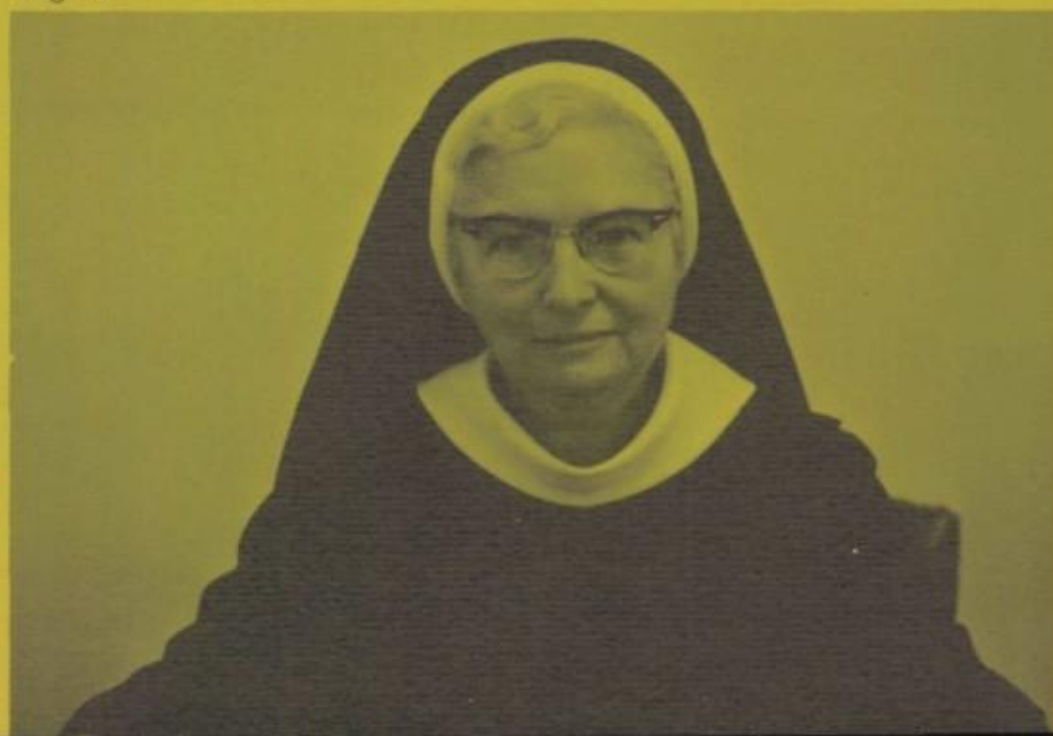

SISTER EMELIA, S.N.D. teaches English I and II besides working feverishly as Moderator of the Freshman Class.

MRS. JANICE McLAUGHLIN spends much of her time in the study of poetry and literature with her freshman and senior classes.

SISTER MARY KEVIN, S.M. offers her assistance to any student who requests guidance, as well as devoting a portion of her day to the teaching of religion.

SISTER SUZANNE, P.B.V.M. is a master of world history and shares her knowledge with many of the lower division students.

SISTER DIANE, S.N.D. does her best to impress upon her senior students the importance of grammar and literature. Sister is also Chairman of the English Department.

The personal contact in learning through others while teaching is a most gratifying reward for every teacher. We held out our hands and they reached up to guide us through our dream.

MRS. VIOLA JOHSON receives constant interruption throughout the day and accepts it gracefully in fulfilling her job as Tuition Secretary.

MISS CHERYL KEIL explores the world of English Literature with her Freshman students.

Our Faculty rarely begins a day as late as 8:20 and very seldom does it end at 3:00. Teaching at Conaty involves a great deal more than academics. Whether it be special instruction of a math problem, presiding as club moderator, or working head on with the Chocolate Drive, the Faculty is there.

MRS. DOROTHY SIDWELL is devoted to helping the seniors understand more about American Problems.

MISS VIRGINIA PRANIK imparts her knowledge of World History

MISS ROSEMARY RAPP divides her time between the teaching of Religion I, III and English III.

SISTER DOLORES, S.M. administers both business and religion courses. Any time Sister is not teaching she may readily be found in the Pallium room, helping the staff as their Moderator.

to many first, second, and third year students.

Teachers do not know all the answers. They are not expected to. Their obligation is to share insights they have acquired and to be aware of a lack of knowledge. Their choice of occupation demands terrific strength of character and enduring perseverance.

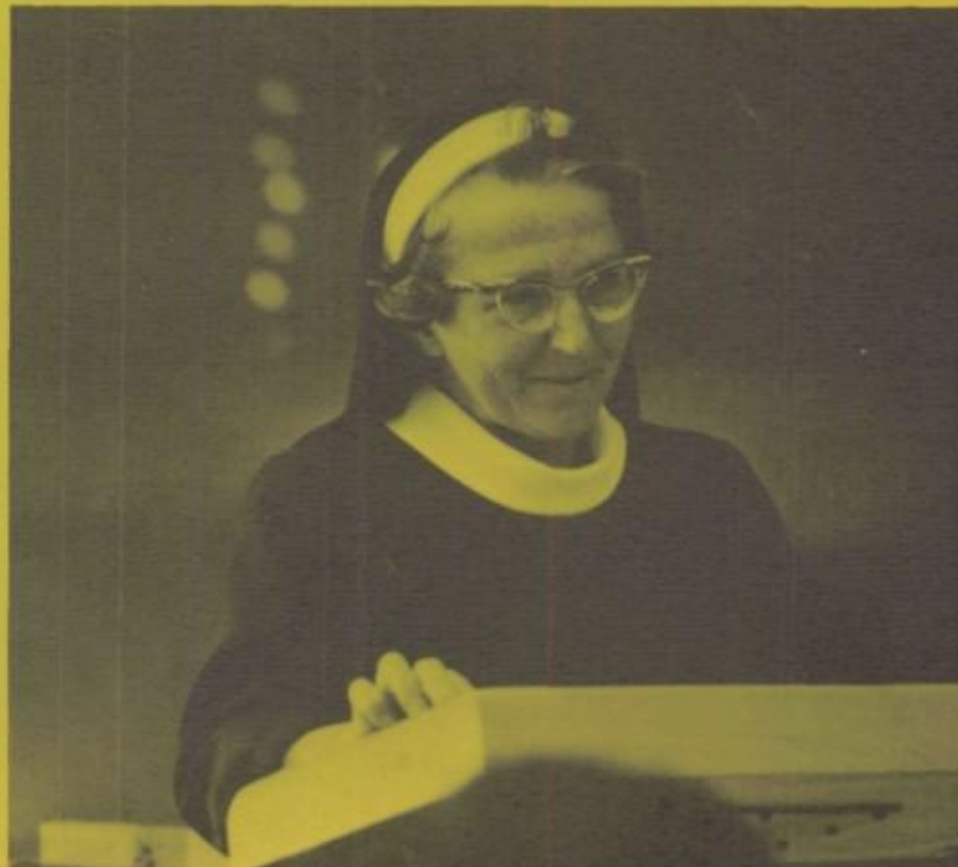

SISTER GABRIEL MARIE, C.S.J. maintains law and order in our school library. Besides her duties as Librarian, Sister teaches Religion IV.

MRS. VERONICA CARLBERG manages the bookstore and helps out around the school in many different ways.

MRS. ANNA McMULLIN explains the mysteries of modern math to the sophomores.

SISTER MARCELLA, P.B.V.M. divides her class time between teaching U. S. History and religion. Sister is also moderator of the Starlet Class of '71.

SISTER EMILE I.C.M. cultivates the beautiful language of French in her students and the members of the French Club. Sister is the French Club Moderator.

Just as the student is confronted with that first day of school, so too are the teachers. Some are Conaty veterans and are pretty well aware of what to expect. Others are new and must become acquainted with the school as well as the students. In the beginning new sea of faces confronted each period. But the days pass and the faces become people, each with a name and a different personality.

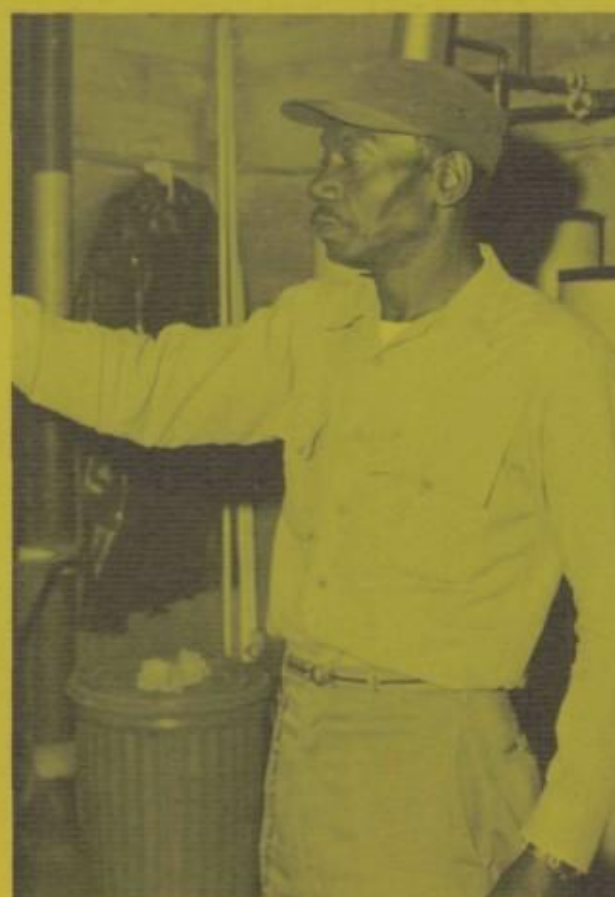

SISTER JEANMARIE, S.M. tells it like it is in the business world to all of her business classes. A good deal of her time is reserved for religion lessons. Sister is the Junior Class Moderator.

MISS ELEANOR BERSANO probes the wide, wide world of English accompanied by her many students.

MR. ALFRED JACKSON, part-time custodian, works strenuously to keep our school plant in top condition.

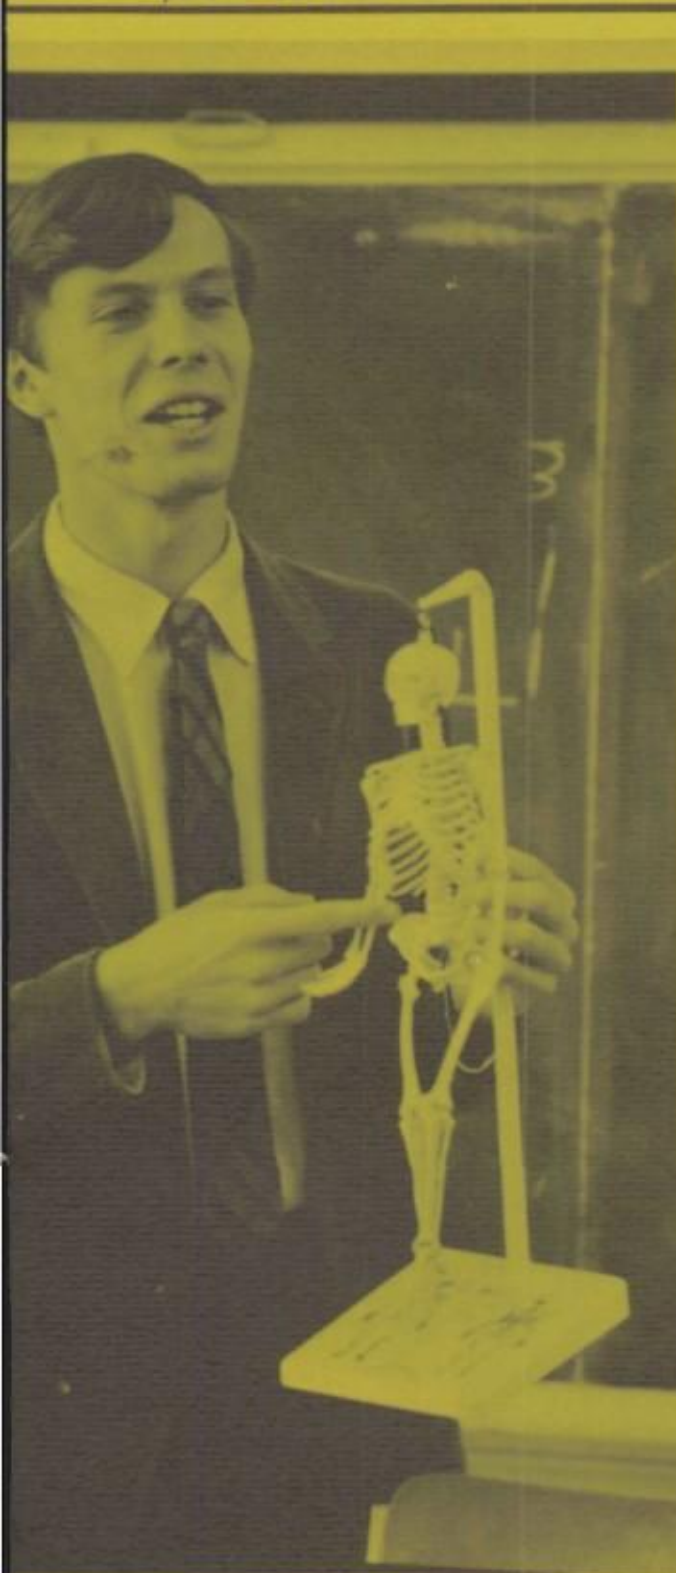

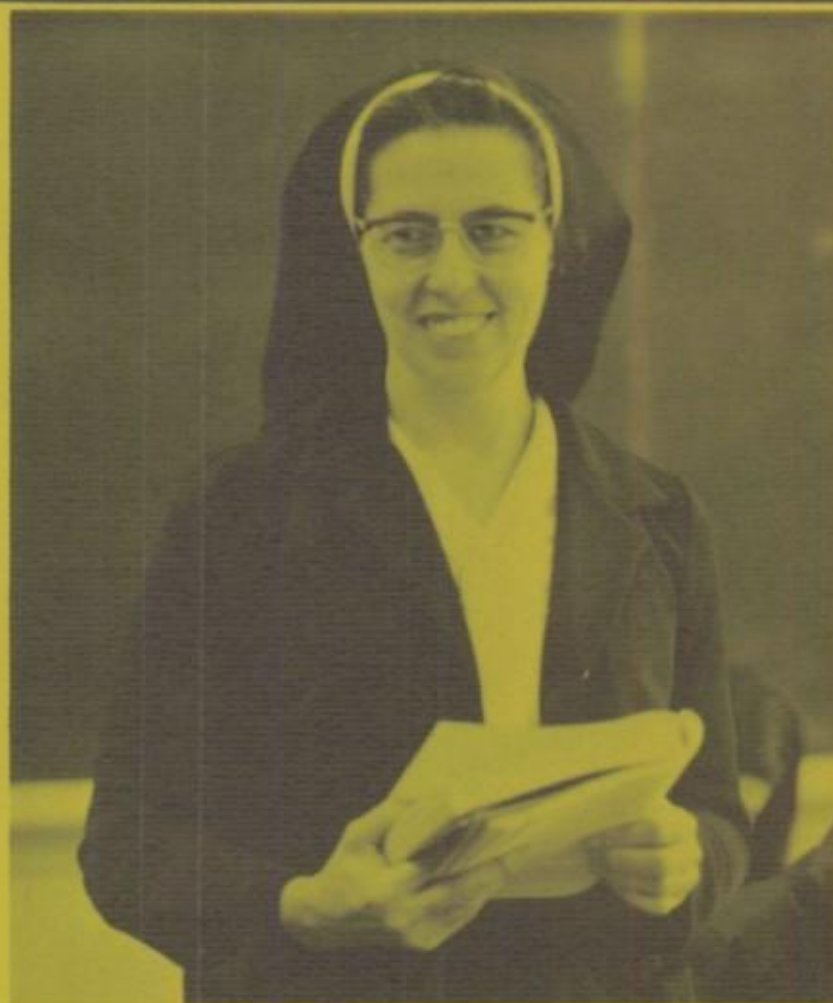

SISTER INMACULDA, Sch. P. fills most of her day by teaching Spanish I, II and IV. Sister represents the Foreign Language Department as Chairman.

MRS. JEANETTE CONTRERAS has an extremely hectic schedule as registrar. Information seekers demand the largest portion of her day.

MR. WILLIAM JEFFRIES investigates the wonders of nature with his students in the Biology Lab.

SISTER DOROTHY MARIE, C.S.J. heads our Math Department here at Conaty. A good deal of her time is spent in the explanation of Algebra and Math IV.

MISS BARBARA WEST is an instructor of physical education besides coaching for our varsity teams.

I hope a very and I to have you next year
 God Bless you Always

*“For every star that falls to earth a new one glows,
For every dream that fades a new one grows.
When things are not what they would seem,*

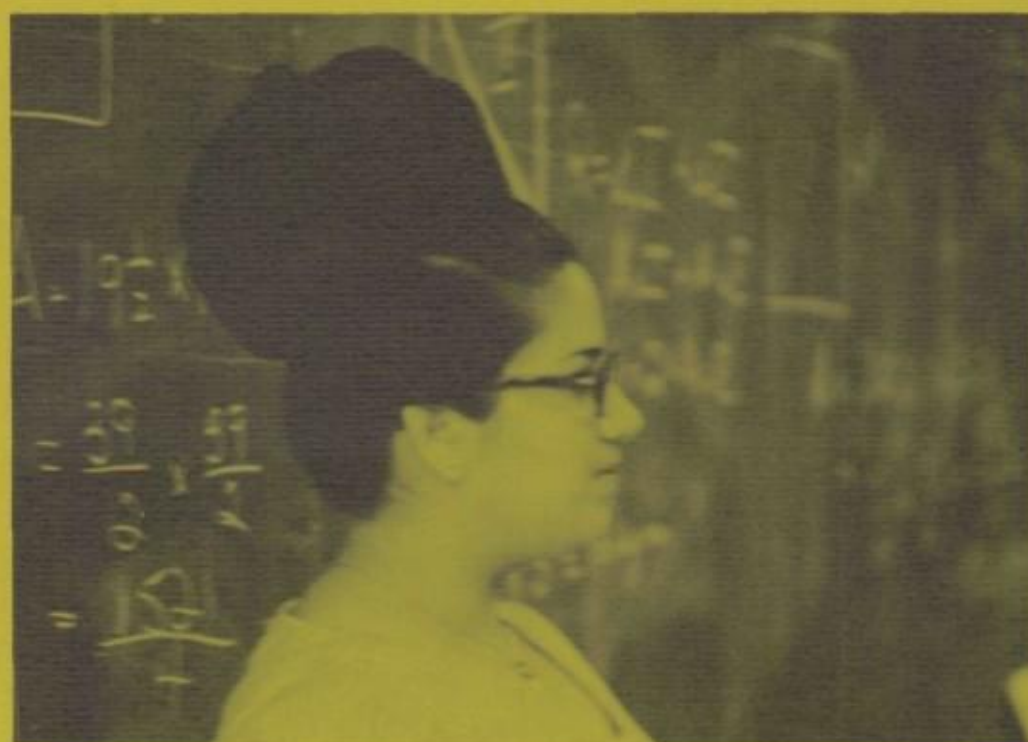

*You must keep following your dream.
So, while my heart is still believing
I will say good-bye."*

MRS. MARY HURLEY, young and perceptive, identifies easily with the younger generation. Comprehensive reading is her field of instruction.

MRS. LINDA SMITH primes the lower division in the necessities of physical education. Constant encouragement intensifies the worth of her coaching.

SISTER MARGARET, C.S.J. relates clear and concise explanations and guidance to the subjects of math and religion.

MRS. JOYCE CERIMELE applies the rules of logic and proportion in developing grade-school methods into high school reasoning during geometry and general math classes.

A teacher has to know and remember how it was to study. Lessons were hardly the sum total of schooling. There were hot sticky days when the end of the afternoon brought freedom and books became taboo. A teacher must care and understand how it was and how it is.

MRS. ESSIE WILLIAMS is known as "the typing teacher" because that is what she teaches most of the day.

MRS. KATHLEEN NELSON teaches speech and drama and is moderator of the Drama Club.

MRS. MARY ANN BAKER can be found showing her girls some of the basics of homemaking.

EDYTHER KAUFMAN, ANN ZELINSKI, JOSEPHINE CARZOLA, JUDY RUE-DAS prepare lunch for hundreds of hungry Conaty girls.

Knowing is not enough for teachers. They must be able to transmit knowledge to others. They must create a sense of communication between themselves and their students.

SISTER THERESA, S.M., can be found in the chemistry lab carefully watching over junior or senior experiments. Sister is also Chairman of the Science Department.

SISTER GUADALUPE, M.E.F. always available and ready to help, fits well into the scheme of Conaty. Sister teaches both Spanish and general language.

A heated rally, armloads of chocolate, and early dismissal, a stampede for the doors, and they were with us.

A Friday night, a blaring band, a turned on dance floor, and they were with us.

Fresh ideas and renewed spirit, weeks of team work, a day of carnival, and they were with us.

Teachers are always where it's happening.

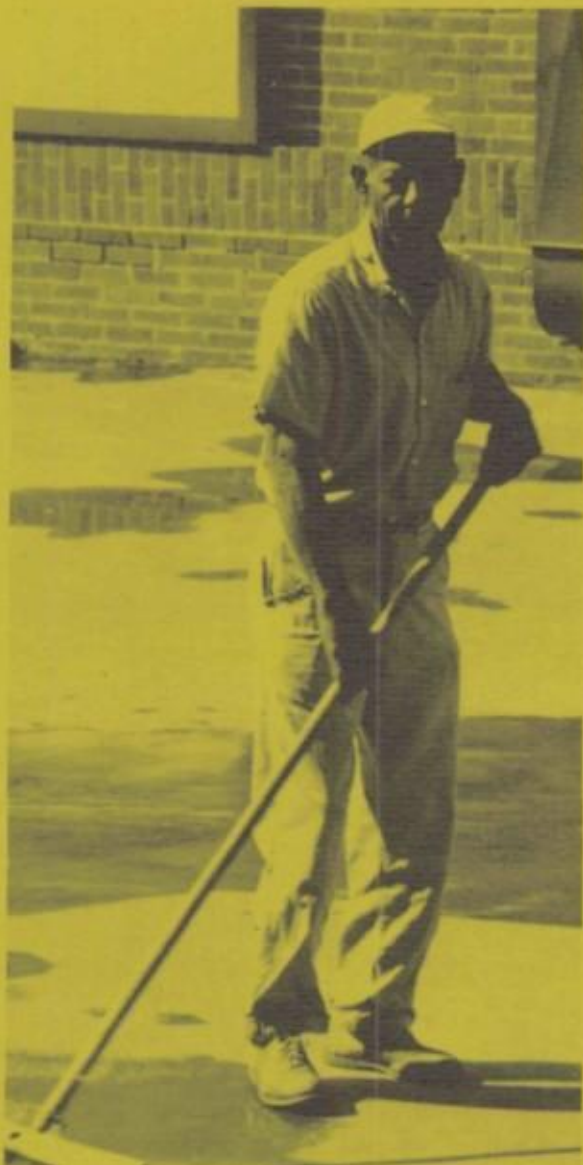

MISS THERESE ESPOSITO, a new personality does well introducing the Frosh to high-school English and math.

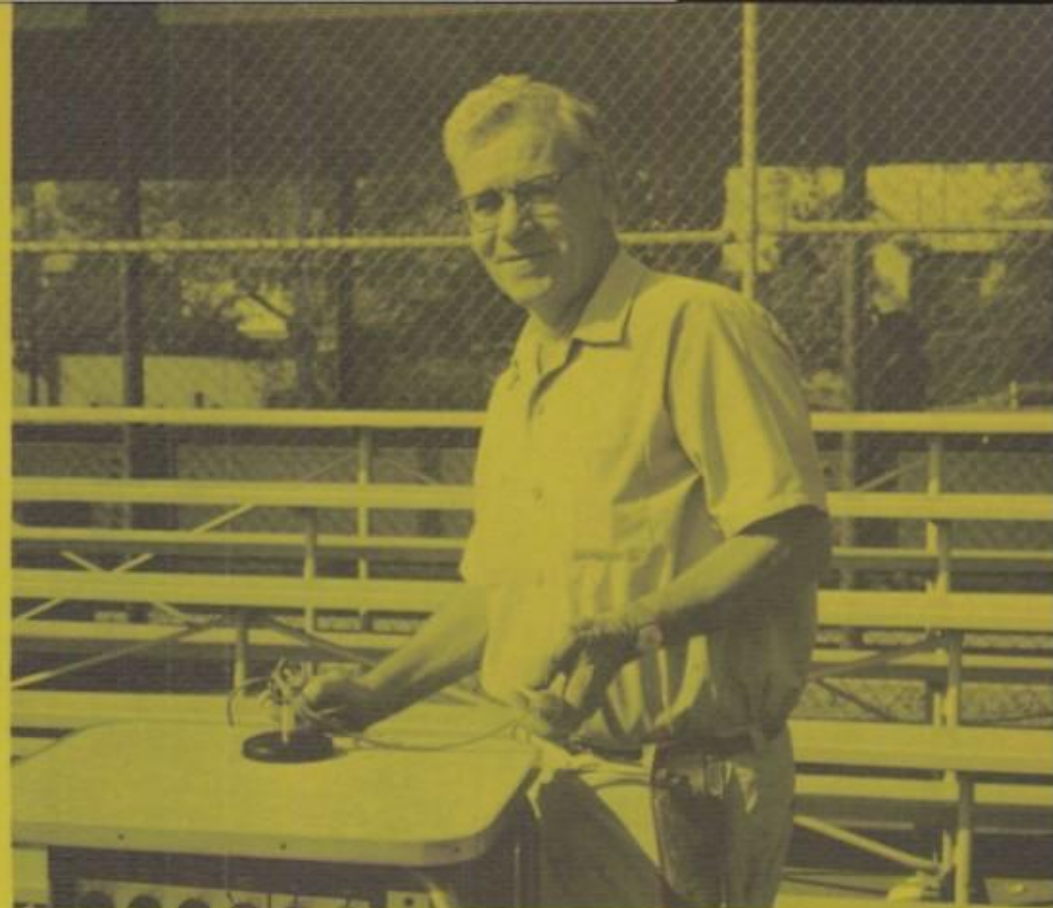

SISTER ANN, P.B.V.M. holds interest of students during enlightening lessons on diversified cultures of the world.

SISTER CATHERINE, C.S.J. friendly, energetic, communicates her love of music in music appreciation and glee.

MR. EMMITT PARHMS, calm, serene, working diligently to keep our campus clean.

MR. TED CARLBERG, pleasant, easy-going, enjoys people in general. The up-keep of such a large school may easily be the stimulus of innumerable exceldrin headaches, but he continues smiling.

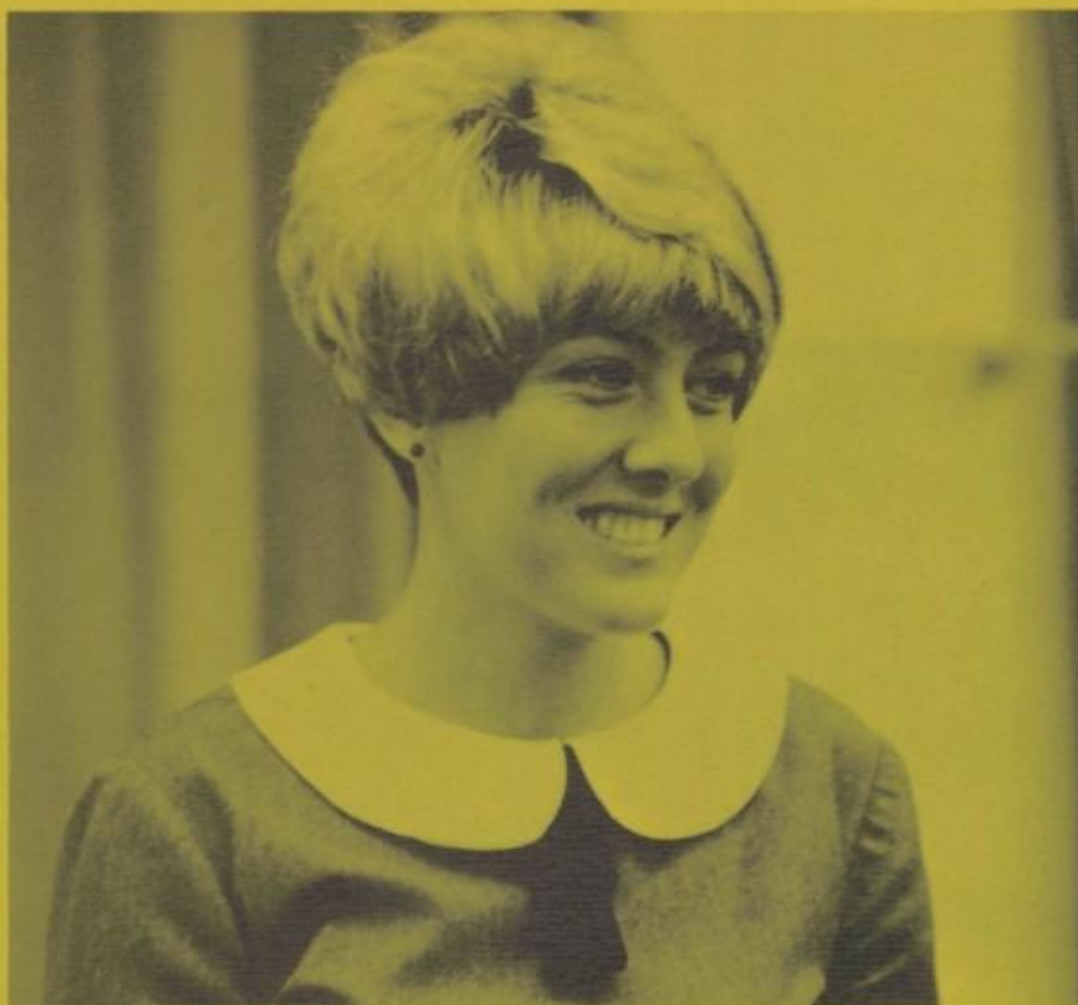

Each teacher retains the individual identity which distinguishes one from another. Various teachers employ a number of techniques in an attempt to attract and maintain the interest of the students. A teacher has to care enough to search for a successful method until it has been found.

MRS. LEE ANN CARDINALE, humorous, thought provoking, sparks her English classes with a welcome bit of wit.

MRS. ELSIE SCHWENK, attentive, a charming smile, and a source of fascination to her classes of Reading Comprehension.

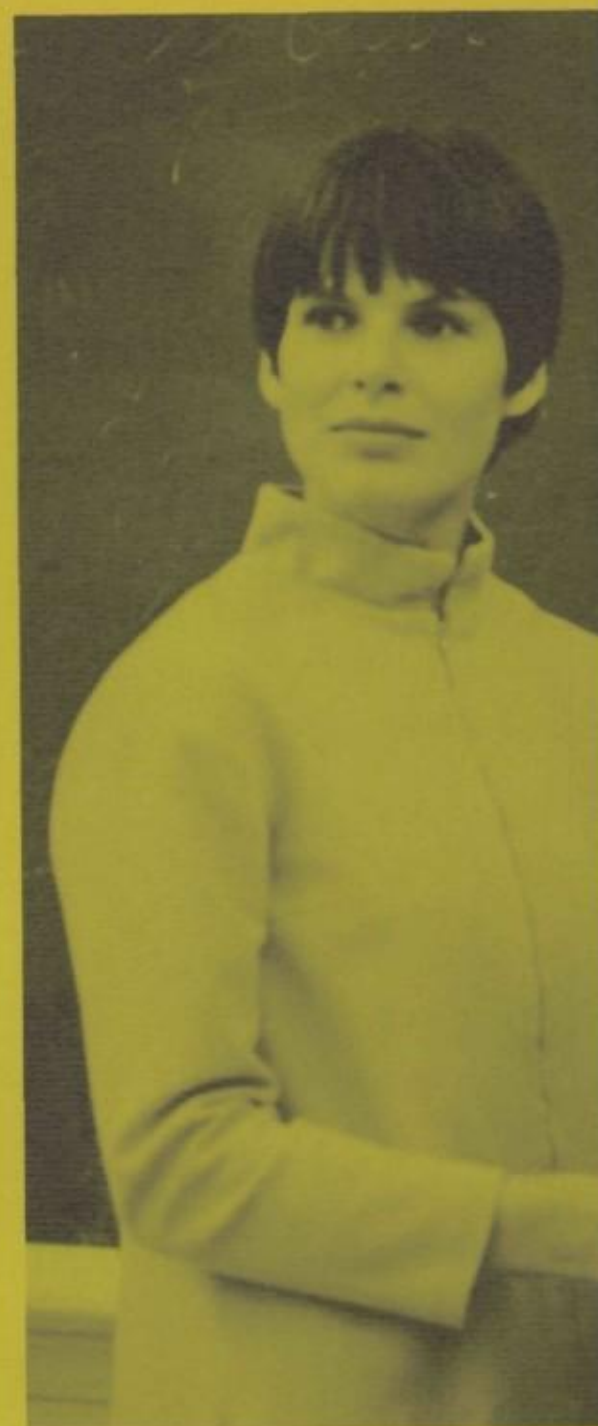

MISS MELISSA MENKE, along with her biology students, researches on the wonders of nature.

A teacher requires an ample supply of patience. Every day is a new adventure. If the schedule has been changed, the students bring the wrong books to class. When the class is short and the discussion is deep, a fire drill is called. Or maybe there is only one day to borrow a special film, and the teacher discovers the period she was going to use it in has been cancelled.

MRS. GRETCHEN KIRST constantly strives to instill a knowledge of English grammar and poetry into the minds of sophomore and junior students.

MRS. KAREN GRINSTEAD teaches English III and supervises the Journalism Department.

SISTER MARIAN JOSEPH, C.S.J. is determined to prepare Conaty girls to become the best of homemakers. Sister also instructs senior religion.

MRS. VIRGINIA WHEELER directs students of the upper division in business techniques during record-keeping, typing, and office practice.

SISTER MARY JEAN, I.C.M. sparkles with spirit. Cultural language and religion are her major paths of edification. However, the most time consuming activity on her curriculum is the Girls' Athletic Association of which she is Moderator.

SISTER LILLIAN, S.M. conducts the transactions of our Business Department and fulfills her responsibility in training the secretaries of the future.

SISTER DOLORA, P.B.V.M. dedicates full time to the education of Young America. During classes of senior history Sister informs the girls of the Problems in America today. She is also our College Counselor and the Moderator of the California Scholarship Federation.

MRS. MARIA CHIONG, reveals a completely new culture to first and second year students of the Spanish language.

ARCHDIOCESAN ADMINISTRATION

Most Reverend John J. Ward

James Francis Cardinal McIntyre displays a vital interest in the education of the young Catholics throughout his Los Angeles Archdiocese. This concern for others is apparent in the devoted attention that Conaty High School students receive from the Cardinal, who is responsible for our school and maintaining its high standards.

His Eminence, James Francis Cardinal McIntyre

PALLIUM STAFF 1969

Memories of friends, instances of insanity, defeat, joy — all the important events of high school years that already seem so dim and far away. These are things we cherish, things we wish to remember with all the joy and pain once experienced. It was our dream to materialize all which we have encountered here at Conaty — before our last goodbye. Our dream is included in each and every page of this book — a gift from us to you.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The materializing of our memory-filled dream depended not upon one, but upon a combination of many individuals. The Pallium Staff of 1969 would like to express its gratitude to Rev. John V. Cosgrove, principal, for his kindness, patience, and support. Many thanks are due to Sister Dolores, Pallium moderator, and Sister Theresa, director and advisor, for their unceasing personal interest, time, and patience in the creation of this book. Appreciation is extended to Mr. Hap Zavack of the American Yearbook Company for his highly valued guidance, and to Mr. Bill and Jack Christy of Christy-Shepherd Studios for their superior and generous assistance. Gratitude is also extended to Jim Rogers of Christy-Shepherd Studios for his measureless patience and indispensable advice.

To Pat

I've enjoyed knowing you & having you as a friend. So just stay sweet & don't do anything that I want to do.

Love ya,

Hi Little Pat,

A very nice, sweet, and short friend that I am glad to know. Though we don't have any classed together I'm glad to see you at lunch time and hope we have at least (1) one class next year. Boy, this year has gone by real fast and it's coming to the end of our second year. Two down and two more to go! I hope to see you sometime over the summer and don't go and get taller than me O.K. (only kidding) Have lots of fun during the summer and don't go & scrape your knees either. Keep in touch - 222-7963 & write a few words or 2. My shack's address is: 1332 CRUSA do Lane, L.A. - 90033. Here's wishing the Best of luck in your times to come. May our friendship continue to grow. See you when we return as JUNIORS - But just think we'll be the last ones to go down and eat lunch. Oh, Brother! I better save room for my signature. O.K.

friend always Debbie
